

1st SHARE Conference at King's College, Cambridge Friday 14th April

In October '22 the SHARE four-year research programme started at Cambridge University to explore the prospects for a more egalitarian form of capitalism. On Friday 14th April we'll be hosting our first half-day conference at King's College, Cambridge with registration/coffee from 9 am for a 9.30 am start, and we would much appreciate your joining us then, either in person or online:

Please click here to book your reservation #

The Conference is free of charge, and will provide an opportunity to hear the underlying principles and planning for the programme, more specific discussion of two propositions, for inter-generational rebalancing and 'Stock for Data', and how we intend to build momentum as the programme moves forward.

For more information on the programme, please visit the Share Alliance website at <https://www.sharealliance.org.uk/>

Contact: Gavin Oldham OBE

Director, Share Alliance

gavin.oldham@share.institute

Reservation link: <https://reattendance.com/public/6040>